

Satellite radio is a wonderful process for sending information thru the air. I heartily endorse that any legislation that would thwart this medium be abandoned.